The Prescott Juniors, a base ball team composed of Prescott boys about sixteen years of age, returned from Congress this morning where they defeated the Congress Juniors yesterday by a score of 29 to 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Richards were passengers this morning for San Francisco where they will visit for a few weeks and then proceed to the Italian islands for an extended visit. They will not return to Prescott before the time in January.

Ed V. Hall was in Prescott last evening for the purpose of letting the Indians of Zuni tribe take his scalp. From the ominous sounds that were heard in the neighborhood of Old Fellows hall he must have fallen into the hands of the scouts.

There is a full blooded Filipino boy attending the Prescott public school. His name is Cyril Casar and he is sixteen years of age and is in the sixth grade. He came here with the soldiers who returned from the Philippine islands some months ago and is a very bright little fellow. Some one suggested that he might be an apt pupil in the new department of "cutting and fitting" as the Filipinos are pretty smooth when it comes to "cutting."

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wells and two daughters, Miss Irene and Gertrude, and their son, Frank, will leave tomorrow for St. Louis where the two young ladies will resume their studies at Principia college which they have been attending for the past two years. They will also be accompanied by Miss Viva Head, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Head, who will enter the same college. Frank Wells will also resume his studies in the department of mines and mining in the university of Missouri at Rolla.

The United States civil service commission announces an examination on October 21, 1903, to secure eligibles to fill a vacancy in the position of interpreter (Romanian and Slavic), in the immigration service at Baltimore, Md., at $2300 per annum, and other similar vacancies as they may occur. Persons who desire to compete should apply to the United States civil service commission, Washington, D. C., for application forms 304 and 1141, which should be properly executed and filed with the commission at Washington.

The Delinquent for October presents an especially attractive array of culinary topics. In the unique cookery series "Carrots and Lettuce," the story of the wedding dinner is told, and excellent recipes accompany the narrative. Autumn Fruits and Vegetables occupies two pages with illustrations and recipes. In a special article the making of ginger bread is explained, and another paper imports the secret of making old fashioned New England pies—"pies like our grandmothers used to make." Useful knowledge about Eggs gives information not generally known but well worth possessing.

About 12 o'clock last night the grim old reaper deity visited the home of C. R. Blasingame and called from earth the wife and mother of the home. Mrs. Maggie L. Blasingame. She had been suffering for about three months with a complication of diseases which the skill of the physicians and the best and most loving care of the husband and friends could not combat and she passed from her sufferings as above stated. Beside the sorrowing husband she leaves a six-week-old baby and two other children without a mother—earth's best friend. The funeral will be held from the residence, 413 South Main street, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, under the direction of Undertaker S. A. Logan.

There was a quiet but pretty wedding ceremony solemnized this morning at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Clark on Union street at which the words were pronounced by Rev. H. B. Long which unite for life the hearts and hands of Wm. L. Coffin and Miss Lena D. Morris. The bride is a handsome and accomplished young lady who has been connected with the firm of M. Goldwater & Bro. as saleslady for some time. The groom is a brother of Mrs. Clark, and is well known and highly respected in this community. He is a first class engineer and has been in the employ of the city as engineer at the Del Rio pumping station for some time. After the wedding ceremony had been pronounced Mrs. Clark invited the happy couple and the guests present to partake of a wedding breakfast which she had spread in honor of the event. At 10:40 Mr. and Mrs. Coffin departed for Del Rio where they will reside. The Journal-Miner joins their many friends in wishing them life's richest blessings.

It is understood that J. L. Giroux, who has been the very efficient superintendent of the great United Verde mine at Jerome, has resigned his position with the company and will transfer his scene of action to Old Mexico, where he is heavily interested in mining. His family will reside in Los Angeles. A gentleman by the name of Pyles, from Butte, Montana, will take the position of superintendent, and is said to have arrived at the great copper camp to familiarize himself with the conditions before the departure of Mr. Giroux.

Revs. George Juillard and M. Dumaret, parish priest and his assistant, of Gallup, N. M., left for their homes this morning after a few days spent in this city. Father Juillard made the memorial address at the dedication of the handsome monument erected in the south end of the Catholic church to the memory of Father Edmund Claessen, who died while parish priest of the church in this city in June, 1902. The dedication and unveiling of the monument took place Wednesday morning and was attended by a large number of friends of the dead priest.

William E. Stewart, one of Prescott's most promising and highly respected young men, and one who has grown from childhood to young manhood in our midst, has secured a position in the great engineering department at Washington, D. C., and will leave for that city Sunday morning to enter upon his new duties. He has been one of the efficient assistants in the Prescott postoffice for the past two years, and his uniform courtesy and the excellent manner in which he has always discharged his duties in business and being knocked to the ground. He hurried to cover, however, and ever after gave the bull all the room he wanted. The other three were more skillful and at no time did they show the white feather—always the red flag.

Charles Davis made a record for himself yesterday, doing the best work of the entire contest. He roped his steer in 35 seconds, the best previous time being made by Wayne Davis, who tied his steer in 40, fast.

Prizes were awarded for the best time made in the two days' contest, and Wayne Davis, a roulette dealer, captured the first prize, his time being 11 1/2 seconds better than the second man. Oscar Roberts won the second prize, and Charles Davis, the third prize.—Gazette.

Victor, Colo., Sept. 19.—At midnight two hundred soldiers visited a meeting of the free college union at Altman and arrested seven of the most prominent men in the district. A guard was thrown about the meeting place, and the officers announced that every man, before he would be allowed to depart, would have to submit to an examination. No specific charge has been placed against the prisoners. All three members of the executive committee, in charge of the strike are now confined in the military guard house, Davis Bird, a member, having been one of the seven arrested last night.

London, Sept. 19.—The Associated Press learns that war between Turkey and Bulgaria is not now regarded as imminent by the foreign office. It is stated that under no circumstances will the powers allow Turkey to occupy Bulgarian territory, hence Turkey has nothing to gain by hostilities. The powers are daily exchanging communications with a view to determine on some possible means of restricting European Turkey.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 19.—The president received copies of the preamble and resolution adopted by the central labor union of Washington, demanding the dismissal from government printing office of William A. Chicago, Sept. 19.—Sir Thomas Lipton, having caused a rest cure this morning his condition is pronounced entirely satisfactory.

GOLD CANYON MINING COMPANY

Brief Description of the Property.

What the Tucson Citizen Says

About This Company and Their Mines.

The following concerning the big deal recently made by J. S. Acker, of this city, when he landed the big gold property known as the Ada mines in the Catalina mountains, is published in the Tucson Citizen.

"The Tucson Citizen, a mining man, has been in the coal fields of Pennsylvania. In 1881 he came to Prescott and since that time the west has been his home. He was for a time territorial geologist of Arizona and has written many articles on the mining industry of Arizona.

Besides his two daughters who were at his bedside at the time of his death, he leaves another daughter, Mrs. J. George Klemm, Jr., of Philadelphia, and a brother, James Blandly, who now resides at Riverside, California.

The funeral services will be held in the Episcopal church, in this city, tomorrow at 9:30, and the body will then be shipped by P. Mohr & Co., to Philadelphia, where the remains will be interred in the family cemetery at St. James the Less, beside the grave of his wife.

Cowboy Tournament.

The cowboy tournament ended yesterday afternoon with exhibitions of skill in steering that will be hard to beat in any section of the country. The contest, under the management of Sheriff W. W. Cook, Jack Gibson and Oscar Roberts, was in every way a success, furnishing amusement for several thousand people.

The initiation ball fights were as near to the real thing as it was possible to get, with the brutality eliminated. Both the bulls were in pretty good humor for doing business with toreros who were not over anxious to come in contact with the vicious looking horns. Only one of the toreros roused the bull's ire sufficiently to get a whiff of the brute's breath. He was a small man, and when his bovine majesty tackled the red flag with his vicious tusks of his shaggy head, the fellow lost his head and turned the wrong way, reeling several times in bruises and being knocked to the ground. He hurried to cover, however, and ever after gave the bull all the room he wanted. The other three were more skillful and at no time did they show the white feather—always the red flag.

"After this the mines remained idle for years, with the exception of an annual assessment work, the new owner not being able to operate them and not being successful in enlisting moneyed people to assist him.

"Finally, about four years ago, the owner entered into an agreement with a party who owned a small mill, whereby the mill was to be placed on the property and the profits to be equally shared from all ores mined. Disagreement very shortly followed this arrangement and only a few tons were mined, which yielded $17 per ton. These famous little pits, showing careless and incompetent handling. The owner also believes that the ore really yielded very much more than returns showed and is to this day fully convinced that the ore would go $50 to $80 per ton in gold.

"Much of this ore panned heavily and free gold specimens were frequently found. Again, the property was without a mill and only assessment work has been kept up during the past four years.

"The company is offered by well known and prominent local business men and the business of the company will be handled from this city. The officers and directors of the Gold Canyon Mining and Milling company are: President, Charles H. Fogue, of the Tucson Hardware company; vice president, A. H. Tibbals, a well known owner of the mine; secretary, Byrd Brooks, teller of the Consolidated National Bank; treasurer, D. S. Cochran, the well known contractor and builder; director, W. I. Perry of Wheeler & Perry, merchants of this city.

"Mr. Tibbals has great faith in the outcome from proper development and careful management and retains a large interest in the company and will have personal charge of the work at the mines. Considering the past favorable history of this property and the fact that it is in the vicinity of such widely known property as the 'Main' and 'Southern Belle' we can reasonably expect to hear frequent and favorable reports from the Gold Canyon Mining and Milling company."

A Wasp Was the Cause.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Dr. Sawyer and Mrs. O. A. Hesa were out for a buggy ride in West Prescott and as they were passing the Moore home they chattered about the new fall hats or something along that line, a wasp landed business end first on the gentle old buggy horse they were driving, and those who have had dealings with wasps will understand the method of his work, and will not be surprised to know that within the three thousandth part of a second something was doing in that vicinity. The horse gave one furious switch of his tail and made a dash for the open country like a wild broncho. The ladies let out a war whoop that would have made an Apache Indian green with envy, and both grabbed the lines to stop the poor suffering animal, and in their combined efforts they both got on one side of the buggy which caused a spill, throwing both ladies out on the ground and slightly scratching and bruising them up but not seriously injuring them. The horse had run a few yards one line caught in the axle and pulled on one side until the horse had made several revolutions in fantastic imitation of a merry-go-round and finally stopped. Being of a kindly disposition and the animal looked back on the havoc he had wrought—and the ladies lying on the ground—and in a rather ashamed manner he walked back to them as gentle as a lamb. The accident was witnessed by some men who hastened to the scene and assisted the ladies to get home. The harness and buggy are now being repaired.

Death of J. F. Blandly.

In the death of John Frederick Blandly, which sad event took place in this city at the residence of M. M. Claypool, at five o'clock last evening, Prescott has lost one of her most honored and respected citizens. Mr. Blandly has been a great sufferer for a number of years, during which time he has been on the operating table no less than six times. Aside from his usual poor health no unusual symptoms were noticed until 1 week ago, when he gradually grew worse and a paralytic stroke seemed to result from the complication of diseases from which he had so long suffered, and he passed to the great beyond surrounded by his loved ones, his two daughters in this city, Mrs. Claypool and Miss E. L. Blandly, being at his bedside.

Mr. Blandly was born in Newark, Delaware, April 24, 1833, which would make him age 70 years at his death. He was educated at the Royal Mining Academy in Freiberg, Germany, and he held some of the most responsible positions in the mining industry of the United States, and was considered as one of the best authorities in that line in the country. He was engaged in mining in the Lake Superior country for several years, and was a contributor to the technical literature of mining and geology. He had also a wide experience in the coal fields of Pennsylvania. In 1881 he came to Prescott and since that time the west has been his home. He was for a time territorial geologist of Arizona and has written many articles on the mining industry of Arizona.

Besides his two daughters who were at his bedside at the time of his death, he leaves another daughter, Mrs. J. George Klemm, Jr., of Philadelphia, and a brother, James Blandly, who now resides at Riverside, California.

The funeral services will be held in the Episcopal church, in this city, tomorrow at 9:30, and the body will then be shipped by P. Mohr & Co., to Philadelphia, where the remains will be interred in the family cemetery at St. James the Less, beside the grave of his wife.

Rheumatism

Is Not a Skin Disease.

Most people have an idea that rheumatism is contracted like a cold, that the damp, chilly air penetrates the muscles and joints and causes the terrible aches and pains, or that it is something like a skin disease to be rubbed away with liniment or drawn out with plasters; but Rheumatism originates in the blood and is caused by Urea, or Uric Acid, an irritating, corroding poison that settles in muscles, joints and nerves, producing inflammation and soreness and the sharp, cutting pains peculiar to this distressing disease.

Exposure to bad weather or sudden chilling of the body will hasten an attack of Rheumatism after the blood and system are in the right condition for it to develop, but having nothing to do with the real true cause of Rheumatism, which are internal and not external.

Urinemics, plasters and rubbing will sometimes reduce the inflammation and swelling and ease the pain for a time, but fail to remove permanently because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it attacks it in the blood, and the Uric Acid poison is neutralized, the sluggish circulation stimulated and quickened, and soon the system is purified and cleansed, the aching muscles and joints are relieved of all irritating matter and a lasting cure of this most painful disease is effected.

S. S. S. is a harmless vegetable remedy, unequalled as a blood purifier and an invigorating, pleasant tonic. Book on Rheumatism will be mailed free.
